U.S. SUPREME COURT REFUSES NEW STUDY OF COASTAL RULING

RECONSIDERATION OF CALIFORNIA LAND CASE REJECTED BY TRIBUNAL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—(AP)—The supreme court refused today to reconsider its decision that the federal government has paramount rights to oil in underwater lands off the California coast.

The state of California asked the court for a rehearing of the case, contending the decision would deprive every coastal state of enormous areas and valuable property rights.

The federal government's claim covered lands between low-water mark and the three-mile limit, but did not embrace bays, ports, harbors and lands between high and low water marks.

California has issued leases which permit various companies to withdraw oil from the submerged lands.

The supreme court ruled in the case last June.

In asking reconsideration of the decision, California stated in its petition:

"There is absolutely nothing upon which the federal claim can be predicated except the unsupported declaration of the majority of this court that national power gives the federal government the

USE OF EXPLOSIVES IN GULF OIL WORK IS RULED UNLAWFUL

DYNAMITING BANNED BY STATE IN EXPLORATION; ATTORNEY GENERAL SAYS

AUSTIN, Oct. 13.—(AP)—Use of explosives is unlawful in geophysical explorations currently conducted by numerous oil companies in the waters of the Gulf of Mexico, an attorney general's opinion held today.

The opinion had been requested by the state school land board following a public hearing here in which coastal citizens, commercial and sports fishermen protested against dynamiting activities of oil companies were killing fish by the thousands.

The opinion, written by Assistant Attorney General Charles E. Crenshaw and approved by Attorney General Price Daniel, held that a state statute prohibiting the use of dynamite in the waters of Texas, except for construction purposes, applies to the waters of the Gulf of Mexico within the state's boundaries and is constitutional.

"Those waters and the lands thereunder are just as much a part of the state of Texas as the capital grounds, and have been since 1836 when the congress of the United States first set the boundaries of Texas three marine leagues from

Storm Batters Florida

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 13.—(AP)—More than 3,000 homes in Greater Miami were reported damaged by floods today in the wake of a freak hurricane which moved northeastward in the Atlantic after slicing across Florida.

Highest waters in more than a quarter-century inundated vast areas of Southeastern Florida, inflicting crop damage estimated between $15,000,000 and $20,000,000. In Greater Miami, unofficial appraisal placed damage to homes at $4,500,000.

With winds up to 60 miles an hour, the storm lashed across Southern Florida Saturday and Sunday and then moved toward the northeast, accompanied by heavy squalls.

Three Children, 6 Texas Adults Meet Death By Violence

By The Associated Press.

Violent death came to at least nine persons in Texas over the week-end.

Two persons died of gunshot wounds, four in traffic accidents, one child was accidentally strangled, another died as a toy balloon became lodged in its throat, and a third was drowned.

Warm Weather To Remain In Texas; All Nation Mild

By The Associated Press.

Cooler weather yesterday was just a flash in the Panhandle, the weather bureau said today—No important change is due.

Traces of rain fell at widely scattered areas, but the heaviest was only .06 inches at Plainview, Pampa, Corpus Christi and a few other spots reported light sprinkles.

It was slightly cooler in the Panhandle Sunday, with Dalhart having a high of 58 degrees for the day. Warmest spot in Texas Sunday was Uvalde with 68 degrees.

Cooler today was again Dalhart with 45. Warmest was Galveston with a low of 76.

Cloudiness is predicted for much of Texas tonight and tomorrow, with no change in temperatures in East Texas and slightly warmer weather in the Panhandle and South Plains.

Fair weather with mild autumn temperatures mostly above an October average was in prospect for the nation from coast to coast today.

The Chicago weather bureau said the rains along the South Atlantic coast appeared to have moved out to sea along with the freakish hurricane which lashed Southern Florida over the week-end.

Temperatures throughout the nation were well below frost lines last night, the bureau said.

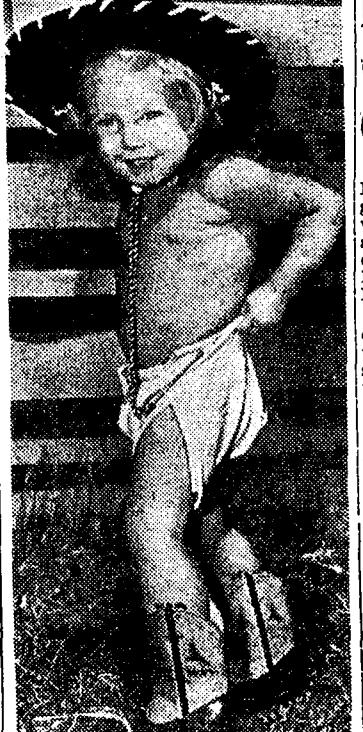

Commissioner of Agriculture Nathan Mayo called the hurricane the greatest farm disaster in more than a generation. Tons of wheat poured down upon the Everglades, where many fields and grazing lands already were covered.

He estimated the multi-million dollar farm damage after receiving reports from throughout the area.

Thousands of residents sought refuge in schools and other public buildings as hundreds of homes were flooded and mass evacuations were carried out. Highways were under water and transportation facilities were crippled.

At Fort Lauderdale the Red Cross added 1,800 flood victims to its list, and about 1,000 persons

Dynamite Found In Car Of Ex-Drivers Of Southern Buses

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 13.—(AP)—Four sticks of dynamite taped together and equipped with a fuse were found here early today in an automobile occupied by two former drivers of the Southern Bus Lines, Inc., Chief of Police J. D. Holden reported.

He said the dynamite was discovered when police investigated the two men who were unconscious in the car parked within two blocks of the bus company terminal.

The bus company is in the process of reopening its routes with drivers hired to replace those who went on strike May 20. In recent weeks several acts of violence against the company have been reported.

"An official of the company identified them as former bus drivers," Holden said.

Holden said a 25-caliber pistol with one shell in the chamber was found in one man's pocket.

The dynamite was not discovered until the automobile was brought to a police station. It was found under the front seat.

A.F.L. Opens Drive For Million-Dollar "Educational" Plan

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 13.—(AP)—The AFL leadership got behind a proposal today to collect a million dollars more annually from member unions to finance a far-flung "educational and public relations program."

An increase in the per capita tax on AFL's 7,600,000 members to three cents apiece was recommended by the 15-man executive council and will be acted on by the convention before it adjourns Thursday night.

The tax now is two cents a member for the first 200,000 members in a union, and one and one-half cents per member in excess of that number.

The funds thus raised would supplement special contributions and expenditures in next year's presidential election campaign. That will

RUSSIA LOSES FIGHT TO HAVE U.N. BLAME GREECE FOR TROUBLE

LAKE SUCCESS, Oct. 13.—(AP)—Russia lost her fight today to have the United Nations order the withdrawal of American and British troops from Greece.

The Russian defeat came when the 57-nation political committee of the United Nations Assembly rejected the first section of a Soviet resolution which was intended to establish responsibility for the Balkan troubles.

The vote was 39 against and 7 for, with 10 abstentions.

India, voted with Soviet Union and the five Soviet bloc countries in favor of the Russian move.

The committee then proceeded to vote paragraph by paragraph the remainder of the Soviet resolution.

LAKE SUCCESS, Oct. 13.—(AP)—Britain charged today that Russia's demand for withdrawal of foreign troops from Greece "is no more than a piece of political propaganda."

COUNTY OVERDRAWN; COURT EXPECTED TO SUPPLEMENT BUDGET

ADDITIONAL UNEXPECTED 1947 REVENUE IN TREASURY MAY BE USED

The county has overdrafted its budget for 1947 by approximately $880, Auditor E. Y. Cunningham told the Commissioners Court at its regular meeting Monday in the courthouse.

Indications were that the court would be forced to supplement the budget in order to operate the government legally for the rest of the year.

The present balance available totals $94,419.10 but bills for the month of September amounted to $8,568.68, Cunningham said. Presently the county is over the allowable budget, it was reported.

Cash in Treasury

About $37,598 cash is available in the treasury but this was revenue anticipated for 1947 and consequently was not earmarked for budget expenditures. Total cash on hand in the special maintenance fund is $27,825.15.

REP. TEAGUE FIRED ON IN GREEK TOUR

ATHENS, Oct. 13.—(AP)—A spokesman for the U. S. embassy said that Reps. Olin E. Teague (D-Texas) and Donald Jackson (R-Calif.) were fired on by mortars today north of Kilkis near the Bulgarian border. Neither was injured.

Teague and Jackson are members of the U. S. house subcommittee on foreign affairs, which is on a survey tour of various European nations.

The embassy spokesman said his information came from Greek military sources. He said several shells fell near the men.

Lt. Col. Allen C. Miller, assistant U. S. military attaché, was with the congressmen. No other details were available immediately.

(The area is one which has been involved in Greek guerrilla operations.)

One Injured As American Consulate In Jerusalem Is Slightly Damaged By Bomb

JERUSALEM, Oct. 13.—(AP)—A woman employee in the American consulate in Jerusalem was slightly injured today by a bomb explosion which blew in upstairs windows of the building and littered the interior with plaster.

Police officials said the bomb had been tossed over the wall of the consulate and exploded in a garden outside the building.

The injured woman, who walked from the building holding her handkerchief to her bleeding nose, was identified as Mrs. Ethel Delevy, formerly of Boston, an American citizen employed in the consulate mail room. Consulate officials said she had suffered "only a scratch."

A Palestinian woman, identified only as a Mrs. Plalpel, who was employed in the mail room with Mrs. Delevy, was badly shaken and hysterical, but was uninjured.

Police and military officers worked on the theory that a woman threw the bomb. They expressed belief that she had concealed the explosive under her clothing while walking up a footpath, bordered by bushes, at the end of the street.

Consul General Robert Macatee was in conference with the Palestine high commissioner at the government offices when the blast occurred. Other consular officials remained at their posts while the debris was being cleared away.

JEWISH SOURCES REPORT SYRIAN TROOPS NEAR PALESTINE BORDER, BUT NO CONFIRMATION IS MADE

By EDWARD CURTIS

JERUSALEM, Oct. 13.—(AP)—Jewish sources reported well-equipped Syrian troops encamped today near the Palestine border opposite an area of Jewish agricultural settlements but there was no confirmation from British officials or other quarters.

One British spokesman said, however, that if the report was true, the Syrian troop movement probably was "the first step of the part of the Arab states to show they will fill the vacuum and take over the Holy Land when the British move out."

The United States consulate in Jerusalem, which was slightly damaged by a bomb which was tossed over the compound wall and exploded in the garden. Two women employees in the consulate mail room were slightly injured.

Observers were inclined to attribute the bombing to an attempted reprisal for the U. S. decision to support partition of Palestine into separate Jewish and Arab countries which was announced Saturday in the United Nations special Palestine committee.

(London newspapers reported today that the exiled Mufti of Jerusalem, Haj Amin El Husseini, had visited a point in Lebanon near Palestine's northwestern border after attending the meeting in Beirut where the Arab league council announced adoption of concrete plans for "military measures for the Arab defense of Palestine.")

(A British foreign office spokesman said the Mufti would be arrested immediately if he attempted to enter the Holy Land while Britain retains her mandate there.)

FLAMING MYSTERY OBJECT SOARS OVER TEXAS-MEXICO BORDER AND EXPLODES IN AREA NEAR EL PASO

EL PASO, Oct. 13.—(AP)—A flaming object which soared over the Texas-Mexico border and exploded near the Zamaleda Mountains of Mexico with a loud explosion and billowing smoke remained a mystery today.

The point of impact was said to be less than 10 miles from a V-2 rocket crashed south of Juarez May 29.

Not V-2 Rocket

Public relations officers at the White Sands, N. M., proving ground said V-2 rockets have been fired since Oct. 9.

Military officials at air fields and other installations in the southwest said that no guided missiles had been fired yesterday and that no rocket planes were missing from fields in the area.

Two persons claimed to have seen the fiery object and others in the Fabens, Texas, area, 28 miles away, heard the explosion.

The explosion occurred at approximately 9:30 a. m. Mexican time (8:30 MST) yesterday.

Billows of Smoke

Billows of unaccounted for smoke were reported seen by two persons on the El Paso-Fabens highway about the time the explosion was heard.

Subas Aranda, a reserve captain in the Mexican army, reported the incident first. He said he saw the object traveling from east to west, which would indicate that it came from the direction of the United States.

Aranda said he was near his home at Caseta, Mexico, when he saw the object.

Castaways Safe After 19 Days Lost At Sea

PEARL HARBOR, Oct. 13.—(AP)—Three American castaways were rescued today by the navy patrol craft 881 at 4:15 a. m. today (8:15 a. m. CST), ending 19 days adrift in the remote Pacific on a group of powerless minnows.

The Hawaiian Sea Frontier, which announced the rescue, said the men were aboard two of the four minnowers from which they drifted away from the vicinity of Palmyra at Sept. 24.

The rescued men said the other two had sunk Oct. 1.

PARTITION PROPOSAL ENDORSED BY SOVIET, JOINING U.S. VIEWS

YUGOSLAVIA, BRITAIN DEFER SPEECHES FOR RUSSIAN STATEMENT

LAKE SUCCESS, Oct. 13.—(AP)—Russia today joined the United States in endorsing in principle a proposal for partitioning of Palestine into separate Jewish and Arab countries.

A United Nations secretariat source said that Yugoslavia and Britain scratched themselves from the speakers' list for today in the 57-member Palestine committee of the United Nations Assembly.

This places the Russian policy statement first for delivery in the Palestine committee when it convenes.

The speakers' list had called for statements from Yugoslavia, Britain, Russia, Haiti, Afghanistan and Saudi Arabia.

Earlier an Arab spokesman said that while Russia would support partition her endorsement would not be as strong as that of the United States. The U. S. statement was made last Saturday.

Soviet support of partition comes as a blow to the Arab countries who had counted on Soviet backing and were making final plans for a new round of speeches attacking the U. S. position.

The Jewish agency for Palestine had given its endorsement to the partition plan.

Arabs Plan Protest

With every Arab delegation planning to take the floor again before the general assembly's special 57-nation Palestine committee, Arab spokesmen made it plain that anti-American feelings of most middle east statesmen were at fever pitch.

The U. S., through its delegate, Herschel H. Johnson, announced on Saturday its support in principle of the plan for dividing Palestine into two countries, one Jewish and one Arab. France, last of the big five, is expected to on this issue also was expected to

DEMOCRATS, PRO-RED PARTY NEARLY EVEN IN ITALIAN ELECTION

By GEORGE BRIA

ROME, Oct. 13.—(AP)—Premier Alcide De Gasperi's Christian democrats and the pro-Communist people's bloc drew nearly even late today in the tabulation of returns from Sunday's municipal election in Rome.

De Gasperi's party of the Center, supported by the Vatican, was battling an eventual leftist challenge to its control of the national government.

It was only 3,000 votes ahead of the People's bloc in partial returns from 1,177 of the city's 1,223 precincts.

The Christian democrats had taken an early commanding lead, but the bloc whittled this down until at 3 p. m. the vote stood 139,024 for the Christian democrats to 136,935 for the People's bloc.

FINAL BREAKDOWN OF RELATIONS WITH U.S. NOT DUE FROM REDS

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—(AP)—Despite Russia's all out battle against the Marshall plan, top American informants now predict that the Soviet Union will also choose a final breakdown of relations with this country any time soon.

This estimate, it was learned from official sources, is entering into basic planning and being undertaken for the Big Four foreign ministers' meeting Nov. 25 at London and German and Austrian peace settlements. It also figures in development of American diplomatic in the current United Nations meeting at New York.

The view is that Russia will campaign to the limit against the United States on great world issues but will not at this point be willing to wreck any important piece of machinery for international negotiations.

This opinion is understood to have been presented to state, defense and other policy-making officials by two American leaders abroad who returned to Washington a few days ago. They are Ambassador Walter E. Edell Smith, American envoy to Moscow, and Gen. Lucius D. Clay, American commander in Germany.

Smith is due to confer this week with Secretary of State Marshall, who is leading the American delegation to the U. N. Assembly sessions in New York.

U.S. LEADERS, DISTILLERS STUDY FOOD SITUATION

WASHINGTON, Oct. 13.—(AP)—President Truman called top government officials to the White House today to hear first hand reports on the European situation from his ambassadors to Britain and Russia, and from the American military governor of Germany.

While this discussion of Europe's food and political crisis was going on, representatives of distillers assembled for a meeting with Chairman Charles Luckman of the Citizens' food committee. The purpose of the latter meeting was to set a date for the start of a 60-day shutdown on whiskey-making to conserve grain.

Distillers to Close

Only five distillers were expected at the Luckman conference. The rest, requested by wire and telephone their replies to the shutdown proposal, have bombarded the committee with messages.

A committee spokesman said a clear majority gave assent to the closing, but that the messages had not been sorted through to discover if the acquiescence was 100 per cent. Some distillers and other employers have protested in public statements against closing.

Presidential Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters that the noon meeting of top-level diplomats and officials in the White House was for the "giving and receiving of information."

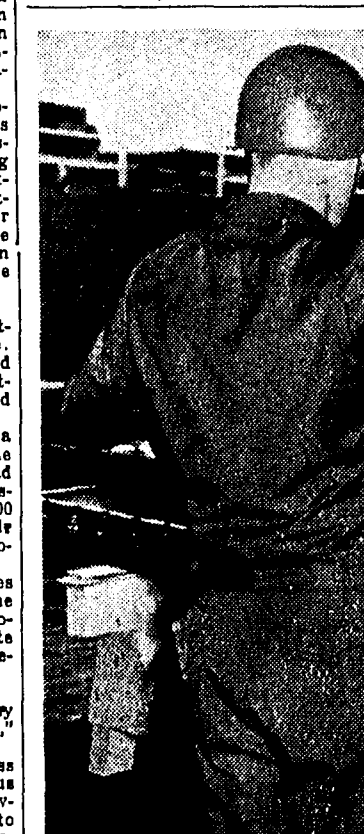

No Conclusions Due

"It is not expected that any conclusions will be arrived at," Ross said.

The meeting was called, Ross said, because of the simultaneous presence in this country of Lewis W. Douglas, ambassador to Britain; Gen. Lucius Clay, military governor of the zone of Germany; Walter Bedell Smith, ambassador to Russia, and Robert D. Murphy, political advisor to General Clay.

The four were requested to report their observations on European conditions to the president, secretary of the treasury Snyder, secretary of agriculture Anderson, undersecretary of state William

Ident Carl C. Farrington of the commodity credit corporation, and two members of the governing board of the export-import bank,

ident Carl C. Farrington of the commodity credit corporation, and two members of the governing board of the export-import bank,

Report Not Public

Ross told reporters also that the White House does not plan to make public the report of the committee on American resources for aid to Europe, headed by secretary of the Interior Krug. The report is a study of the possible extent to which this country can bolster European economies without distress at home. It was delivered to the White House last week.

It is now "being studied," Ross said, and copies will be distributed among top government officials and members of congress who are directly concerned "on a confidential basis."

Joseph O'Neill, president of the AFL Distillery Workers, threatened yesterday to sue the distillers for damages under the Taft-Hartley act on the ground closing down would be a violation of contract. He said the union would ask for a court injunction if necessary to keep the plants open.

Restaurant Meeting Set

Luckman also arranged to meet officials of the American Restaurant Association to discuss compliance with President Truman's plan to conserve food by serving no meat on Tuesdays and no eggs or poultry on Thursdays.

In a further attempt to step up the tempo of the program Mr. Truman is expected to ask the 48 governors to form citizens committees of their own and issue proclamations urging support of the "waste less" campaign.

At least 23 of the 39 big distilleries whose officials met with Luckman last week already had agreed to close before the union threat of court action was made public in San Francisco. The Distilled Spirits Institute, representing 60 percent of the industry's capacity, went along under protest.

CORSICANA, TEX., OCT. 14, 1947

TRAVELING CONGRESS

Maybe one of the reasons for President Truman's reluctance to call an early special session of Congress is that a lot of Congressmen, and two Congresswomen, are out of the country. Nearly 200 are touring Europe, Palestine, China, the Pacific area, some are in Alaska and Canada. The members are attempting to get behind the mystery of state Department affairs, to find the answers as to what the American foreign loan and outright commitments should be.

Some will come home, as the foreign traveler always does, feeling they are experts on the countries visited. Such an attitude may make Secretary of State Marshall's job harder than at present. It may make it easier, on the other hand, for the "Marshall Plan" to be put into operation.

The trips are not all hard work. Nearly every European delegation will find it necessary to visit Paris before coming home, and the much-advertised delights of Hawaii will make a stopover there seem important for the western voyagers before they tackle their Washington jobs.

One country at least, the USSR, has little faith in the Congressional visits, and has closed its doors to the American lawmakers. It remains to be seen whether these junkets, financed by the American taxpayer, will make for more enlightened Congressional action in 1948. One thing is sure; the tours will affect, for good or ill, the future of American foreign relations.

WHO'S TO BLAME

Washington has the price jitters. Both Republicans and Democrats are on edge about soaring costs. Both camps of politicians will be looking for something upon which to pin the blame for high prices: the scuttling of the OPA; too large promise of food for hungry Europe; business men intent on keeping up of production costs to make profits; unions' pushing up of production costs through spiraling wage boosts.

The intelligent citizen knows there is no single cause of higher living costs. Complicated adjustments following a gigantic war effort cannot be reduced to simple black or white by any method; certainly not by blaming any one group or cause.

One of the underlying reasons for high costs can be laid squarely at the door of consumers: war-time shortages added to present good wages have made eager buyers of the public, which is intent on having its steak, its radio and its new car no matter what the sales tag is. A little restraint in the purchasing enthusiasm of the ordinary citizen would do much to check mounting prices. Washington's politicians, both Republicans and Democrats, know this. But it's better party technique to use the other camp as the scapegoat. Must we sacrifice good sense to party rivalry in so serious a time?

THE NAZI SPIRIT

The United Press relays the following sorry tale. A British soldier stationed in Germany fell in love with a German widow. He married her and took her to England with her ten year old son. The son, a Hitlerite, was uncompromisingly antagonistic in English surroundings. The Englishman felt forced to break up the marriage, and send the woman and boy back to Germany.

The moral is grim. It suggests how long it will take

GUESSING GAME

Oh, my temples may be gray
 And I may be past my prime,
 But I'm not too old to play
 Guessing games at dinner time.

And a look on my face
 Is to look about and say:
 "There's a thing I'm thinking of,
 Who can guess it right away?"

"Is it in the room?" they cry.
 "Is it black or white or green?"
 And I chuckle as they try
 To discover what I mean.

"Is it mineral or plate?"
 "Is it silver? Is it glass?"
 Here is fun, I dare to state,
 Life holds nothing to surpass.

Little girl and little boy,
 With the evening coming on,
 Who knows any better joy
 For the day that's almost gone

Than sitting guessing games as these?
 There is nothing, I reply,
 Nothing better me to please,
 I would play them till I die.

to stamp out the Nazi spirit in Germany.

Cynical old Machiavelli, warning the conqueror-prince of the dangers of acquiring a city accustomed to freedom, advises that the inhabitants should be destroyed, for "there is more vitality, greater hatred, and more desire for vengeance, which will never permit them to allow the memory of their former liberty to rest."

We need not share Machiavelli's attitude toward freedom, nor his cruelty. What he says of the tenacity of freedom is true of any way of life, especially if it has been thoroughly ingrained in young minds and hearts.

Destruction of all German youth with Nazi leanings is a monstrous impossibility; but we must remember that the yearning for der Fuehrer and what he stood for as still there and will remain for at least a generation, ready to flare up at any time when Germany's conquerors become careless.

THEIR OWN NOTION

"Other countries have their own notion of what constitutes human rights," So Gromyko said more than he meant to do. It is just because the Hungarian Communists and their allies have their own notion of what constitutes human rights, a notion repellent to lovers of freedom, that they have earned the distrust of the rest of the world.

Certain human rights are basic. Civilized nations recognize them. They are the right to freedom of religion; to freedom of speech; to freedom of the press; of peaceable assembly and petitions; the right to trial by jury of one's equals; the right of habeas corpus—that right which prevents a citizen from languishing in jail without trial; the right to close the door against search and seizure without legal warrant.

There is also the right to secret ballot, which is not in our own primary Bill of Rights, but which is coming to be recognized as one of the important tools by means of which the other can be preserved, without which they are not safe.

If "their own notion of what constitutes human rights" does not agree in essence with this list, then it is nonsense to speak of any nation as "democratic" or "republican" or by any such term which indicates that it respects the rights of individuals to individual dignity and freedom.

"Lending Market Boils as Bank Deposits Continue Rise" says a financial page. Too much money available and not enough use to make of it. How is this situation going to straighten out? There are limits to the possibility of people getting rich just by lending money to each other.

The question now arises in Cincinnati, and various other places, whether a girl has the right to shoot her lover for finding another girl's lipstick on his shirt. Well, circumstances may alter cases, but such a penalty does seem extreme.

Shakespeare is credited with possessing the greatest of all human minds, and using it to supreme advantage, but who bothers to read him when there are movies available?

As for Russia, Americans naturally remember an old motto, "Trust in God and keep your powder dry."

MAYOR BRASELTON TO ANNOUNCE NAMES OF FOOD COMMITTEE

Mayor Hubert T. Braselton Monday had named a local committee to work in obtaining observance of a national food savings program, but members' names were withheld pending their acceptance.

The mayor received a telegram from state headquarters Monday asking that the local unit be formed in the interest of joining with the president in his plan for citizens to observe meatless Tuesdays.

The plan will encourage restaurants to save a slice of bread each meal, to observe meatless Tuesdays, eggless and poultryless Thursdays. Cafes also are asked to serve bread and butter only when a patron asks for it.

Mayor Braselton said members of the group would be contacted during the day and the panel would in all probability be announced Tuesday.

RULING BY ATTORNEY GENERAL ON SCHOOL SALARIES IS SLATED

AUSTIN, Oct. 13.—(P)—The state board of education today authorized a committee to present salary schedules and arguments of five school districts to the attorney general for an opinion on whether they meet requirements of Texas school laws.

Gilbert M. Denman of San Antonio, chairman of the committee, said that briefs of all four schools involved questions of law and no dispute over facts.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction L. A. Woods, present, said a long list of schools which he said have not complied with the state salary schedule law. He suggested that they should be dropped from the list of accredited schools if their salary schedules are not approved within the next four weeks.

"We have sent them three notices in regard to this law and if their schedules are not approved by the November meeting of the board, they should automatically cease to appear on the list of accredited schools," he said in his written report.

Included on the list was Abilene, which he said had "colored teachers" on state salary schedule but all white teachers with degrees above the schedule.

The attorney general held a recent opinion that negroes and whites with equal qualifications must necessarily be paid on the same schedules in order not to violate the 14th amendment of the U. S. constitution.

Former Corsicanan Predicts Baptists To Number Million

The number of Baptists in Texas will reach more than 1,000,000 this year, Dr. J. Howard Williams, executive secretary of the Texas Baptist General Convention, told delegates to the annual convention of the Union Baptist Association in Houston on Thursday.

Dr. Williams presented a program of development of rural churches. He said Texas Baptists are working toward a modern country church with a steeple, parsonage, with five to 15 acres of ground, recreational facilities for young people and a garden.

"The real solution to the country church problem is outstanding leadership and resident pastoral services," Dr. Williams said.

Dr. Williams said there were 942,000 Baptists in Texas in 1946, and the Baptist Union of America has a membership of 100,000, said to be the largest in the world.

FIRE DESTROYS HOME, MOST BELONGINGS OF AGED WIDOW MONDAY

Fire Monday morning swept away practically everything that Mrs. B. C. Hitchcock, 73-year-old widow, had accumulated during a lifetime.

The blaze, discovered by neighbors, badly gutted the white frame structure at 1514 West Collin street.

Chief H. P. Bivins said damage to the house would aggregate $1,000.

A daughter-in-law of Mrs. Hitchcock estimated that furnishing and clothing destroyed by the fire would total $3,000.

In Ennis at Time. Mrs. Hitchcock, whose husband died only a year ago, was in Ennis at the time the fire was discovered.

Bivins said it was impossible to ascertain from the debris what had caused the blaze.

Mrs. Hitchcock had a small amount of insurance, but the furnishings, relatives said.

Clothes and other things belonging to John Beard, a brother of Mrs. Hitchcock, who made his home with her, also were destroyed. Only a few mattresses and bed covers were removed.

The house is owned by Mrs. S. H. Jack.

STATE AGENCY WILL NOT BID ON AREA FOR GAME REFUGE

AUSTIN, Oct. 13.—(P)—The game, fish and oyster commission today in executive session decided to withdraw its bid for a 55,000-acre tract near Brownwood which Executive Secretary Howard Dodgen had suggested as the site for a wildlife restoration project.

Big delegations of opponents of the project were here to voice their views but the commission acted in the executive session prior to a public presentation of these views.

Opposing the proposition was a delegation of Brownwood citizens and favoring it were representatives of the Texas wildlife federation.

The 55,000 acres are a part of the 116,000-acre Camp Bowie maneuver area, used by the army during the war. Had it been purchased, it was expected to have ultimately become the commission's first public preserve.

September Water Sales Establish New High For City

Water sold by the city during September established a new high for a three-year period, and is believed to be the highest on record. The total was $18,573.11.

Edgar Rittschbacher, water commissioner, assembled water sales figures at the city hall Monday in an effort to find a comparable figure upon which to base summer water rate decisions.

The summer water rate was not given users during 1947, but when the decision to eliminate it during the hot days was made it was not known whether it would or would not increase revenue. Some of the commissioners expressed the opinion that the summer rate brought in more money. Others took the reverse stand. There was no comparable figure available at the time upon which to base action.

Rittschbacher said Monday he still hadn't found one.

Revenue from the water department has climbed steadily since 1945.

Rittschbacher found the following figures:

June-Sept., 1945....$40,879.13
 June-Sept., 1946....43,999.69
 June-Sept., 1947....63,876.69

The summer water rate was in effect during 1945 and 1946, but increased consumption and subsequent revenue during the same period of 1947 also could be credited to the long, hot and dry spell of 1947.

Breakdown on the summer for 1947 shows:

June.....$10,487.47
 July.....11,981.14
 Aug.....12,887.97
 September.....18,573.11

How to attain this happy state?

Knowledge is power in this as in so many areas of life. Knowledge, stored up in the skilled doctor's mind. Health is his job!

How much better to pay the doctor to teach you the secret of radiant health, than to pay him to restore you to health!

The British declaration was made by Minister of State Hector McNeill after hearing Russia's chief delegate, Andrei Y. Vishinsky, and five of Russia's foreign ministers. He declared the United States for what they called intervention in Greece.

Herschel V. Johnson, U. S. delegate, joined McNeill in opposition to the Soviet demands. He declared the United States delegation would "vote against the entire body" of the Soviet resolution.

U. N. Commissioner Sought.
This inclusion of Vishinsky's demand for creation of a United Nations commission to supervise the Truman program of aid to Greece. The Soviet chief delegate here charged the U. S. and Britain were "aiding" of this kind of commission because they were guilty of what he called "intervention" in the internal affairs of Greece.

Vishinsky spoke before the general assembly's 57-nation political committee.

He conceded that his resolution would be defeated, but said "Russia will continue its struggle for removal of the threats to Greece."

Vishinsky described American attempts to place the blame for the current Balkan difficulties on Albania, Bulgaria and Yugoslavia as a "ruse".

At the U. N. decision to accept a French-British compromise modifying charges of guilt against the three Balkan satellites of Russia.

The political committee approved a U. S. plan Saturday, 30-6, for a U. N. "watchdog" committee to keep an eye on the Balkan situation. The Soviet block cast the only dissenting votes.

DR. ROSS

The three-story stone structure, built in the middle of the town square, was partially filled as the trial started at 9 a. m.

Ross, a 43-year old San Antonio physician, is charged in the May 25 slayings of four members of the Willard H. York family on a lonely road in Comal county.

The case was transferred here Sept. 12 from New Braunfels, county seat of Comal county, after only ten jurors were obtained from three special panels.

Sixteen persons were accused from the original panel of 104 summoned as the trial began. Among them was Postmaster Erwin Slavinnka of Eagle.

Sheriff T. J. Flournoy and Chief Deputy Charles Pripp escorted the bespectacled defendant from the fence-enclosed county jail half a block away, to the court house.

Ross, clean shaven and wearing a blue suit, walked between the two officers into the back entrance of the courthouse, up a flight of steps and into the jury room.

Once inside, Ross lit a cigarette. Sheriff Flournoy closed the door as they waited for the trial to begin.

Blue Suit Worn.
Jailer William Rightmer said that Ross shortly after rising this morning asked for one of his suits, a blue one. He wore a red necktie and tan shoes.

At the New Braunfels trials, he wore a tan suit.

Ross never said anything about the trial since he's been here," the jailer said this morning.

Ross's attractive wife, Gladys, and the surgeon's former office nurse, Mrs. Clara Helms, both of San Antonio, took seats at the side of the courtroom until the 88 prospective jurors were taken into the jury room.

Ross Faces Wall.
Ross sat in a chair directly in front of Judge J. R. Fuchs' bench, facing the east wall. His hands were folded in his lap, and his eyes, usually, were fixed on the wall.

Spectators thinned out a little after the selection of jury began. They came apparently to get a look at Ross.

District Attorney J. Lee Dittor announced ready for the state and the defense. The defense was ready. Other defense attorneys included Julius Schleyer, New Braunfels; Leonard Brown, San Antonio; and C. C. Jopling, LaGrange. Besides Dittor, for the prosecution, took Flette County Attorney John Marguerite.

Sheriff Flournoy said yesterday he did not believe there would be any trouble in obtaining a jury here.

Sane Trial Expected.
Judge Fuchs, who ruled at New Braunfels that he did not think a fair and impartial trial could be obtained there, will hear the case here.

Dr. Ross is charged with the murder of Willard H. York, 39, a close friend; York's wife, Gertrude, 43; their son, John, nine, and their mother, Mrs. Mary York, 67, all of San Antonio.

The four members of the York family were slain on Sunday morning as they were on their way to church. York's daughter, Ann, 18, was wounded but stumbled through heavy brush to seek aid.

A native of Dellroy, Ohio, and Harvard-trained, Ross was moved to the Fayette county jail here Sept. 22.

Looks Healthier, Better.
"He looks healthier and better now than when he came here," Sheriff Flournoy said. "He's took it pretty good over here."

Ross is confined in the second floor of a two-story jail. Flournoy said C. C. Jopling, LaGrange criminal attorney, would assist the defense today in selecting a jury.

He added that he had obtained 100 of a special venire of 108 men to try Ross.

Ross pleaded innocent at New Braunfels to charge of murder in the death of Mrs. York on the grounds of temporary insanity.

Ross' wife and a trained nurse who was employed by him, arrived here late yesterday for the trial.

STORM

Dill Field army air base at Tampa at 7:15 a. m. (CST) in perfect flying weather. They were expected back about 5 p. m.

At 9:15 a. m. (CST) the weather bureau said the storm was centered about 300 miles southeast of Cape Hatteras and moving in a northeasterly direction about 25 miles an hour.

Winds near the center were estimated at 50 to 60 miles an hour, and small craft from Charleston, S. C., to the Virginia Capes were advised to remain in port as strong winds and gales were expected to cover a wide area from the Atlantic coast to Bermuda today.

At Hamilton, Bermuda, two members of the U. S. Army Air Forces told how they piloted a B-17 to the "eye" of the hurricane as it roared off the Florida coast yesterday.

"Nightmare Journey"
The pilots—1st Lt. George Koungias of Stephenville, Tex., and 1st Lt. Charles B. Jones of New Bedford, Mass.—carried out the hazardous mission for the 53rd weather reconnaissance squadron.

"We carried on the nightmare journey for three hours, taking pressure and feeling our way into the center of the hurricane," Koungias related soon after greeting his wife and infant daughter Patricia Ann, who awaited him there. "Suddenly, after hours of blackness and an almost unbearable plane, we broke into the 'eye' with brilliant sunshine beating down on us."

"The contrast was unbelievable. The sky was deep blue but it and the sea 500 feet below us, was a peaceful green, absolutely calm, and there was no white fury of a few minutes before."

Families on Hand
Lt. Jones' wife and young daughter Darlene were also on hand for the greeting. The wives had had no word from their husbands for five days.

After spending 20 minutes inside the "eye," Lt. Koungias said, he and his co-pilot had to battle their way out again.

"Hurricane winds of 140 miles an hour were blowing against the aircraft and more than once it seemed as though the B-17 could not stand up against the terrific strain," he said.

When they finally reached Tampa, he added, they found that eight bolts had been ripped from the plane where the wing joins the fuselage.

Center Near Miami
The storm center passed just north of Miami, weather bureau observers said. They had 5 1/2 inches of rain, 1.34 inches in 10 minutes for the heaviest fall ever recorded here in such a short time.

Two marine corps veterans who had volunteered as American Red Cross ambulance men were killed when the vehicle in which they were riding to evacuate flood victims rammed a utility pole.

A series of small tornadoes accompanied the storm. Two buildings in Jacksonville, Fla., some roofs torn off and trees and vines damaged. No injuries were reported.

Air Service Resumed
For a time, Miami's International Airport, one of the busiest in the nation, was closed with water and plane service was interrupted. Schedules were resumed Sunday.

A Pan American Airways DC-4, enroute from Havana to Miami with 38 passengers and four crew members aboard, planned to fly into the storm but instead passed close to the center of it and fought winds, rain and hail for two hours before flying on to Nassau for a landing. None of the passengers was injured but seven fainted from fright.

shore in the Gulf of Mexico, the opinion read.

"The salt water marine life within those waters are just as much the property of the state as fresh water bass or perch. The legislature intended in Article 924 the governing statute, to protect the salt water fish just as much as the fresh water fish."

Some Explosives Lawful
The opinion said use of explosives in the Gulf are lawful only on lands leased from the state and then only when necessary in connection with construction of waterways.

The school land board supervises and directs leasing of the submerged lands for oil and gas development with revenue therefrom going to the public school fund.

Commissioner Bascom Giles, chairman of the board, has authority to make rules and regulations for exploration work only on leased lands and then subject to Article 924, the opinion noted further.

"There is no authority for granting a permit or making rules which would permit and regulate such explorations on the unleased lands," the opinion declared.

"Private concerns which have obtained geophysical information on gulf lands without permit or lease are liable to the state in damages for the value of the privilege so exercised," it was stated.

Daniel said he would meet with Galveston and Jefferson county officials in Galveston Wednesday to discuss the enforcement of the laws interpreted in the opinion.

support, at least in principle, the partition plan.

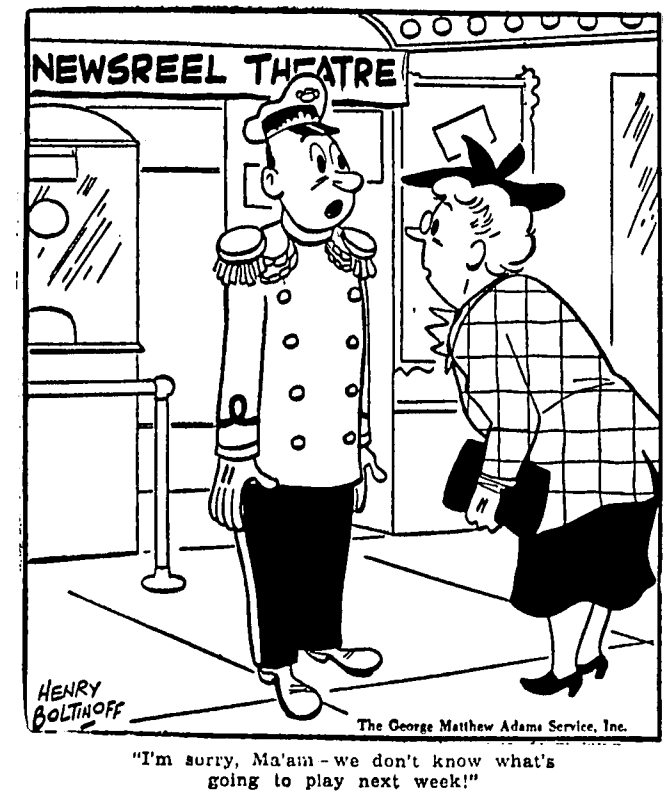

The U. S. declaration also supported a recommendation for admitting 150,000 Jewish immigrants into Palestine. It stipulated that after the Holy Land was partitioned, the American government would help the U. N. preserve internal law and order during a two-year interim period, but failed to commit the U. S. on the vital question of providing armed forces for implementing partition.

J. A. Engelhard, institute president, said the result would be "serious unemployment" and a smaller savings than the government expects. He said closing the distilleries would cut off byproducts usually fed to livestock and force farmers to feed grain instead, thus paring down the prospective saving of 10,000,000 bushels a year.

The food campaign is aimed at saving a total of 100,000,000 bushels for export.

right to appropriate these properties, a proposition which we have shown is contrary to all past decisions.

Future Action Uncertain.
"If this decision should stand, no one today could foretell the extent to which future federal administration may go in asserting the right to expropriate private property and rights on the basis of the vague concept of national power."

The supreme court decided the case by a 5 to 2 vote. Justice Black wrote the majority opinion, with dissents by Justices Reed and Frankfurter. Justice Jackson did not participate.

The court deferred action on a final decree to carry out its decision of last June.

The court unanimously approved and adopted a resolution favoring construction of a state highway from Corsicana north to the northeast corner of the county. The action was taken following a proposal by Chamber of Commerce Manager Herman Brown at the last meeting of the court. A delegation of Chamber officials and interested citizens plan to appear before the state highway commission soon on behalf of the proposed project.

Claims against the county amounting to $9,560.68 were approved after reading by Judge Powell. District Clerk J. C. Gaston won the court's authorization for hiring a special deputy clerk for three days at $5 a day.
